Alex,

You may write that Plaintiffs informed Facebook they do not oppose the request but would not stipulate to it. Please send us a draft of your motion before filing so that we can sign off.

Thanks,
Matt

Matt,

If we file an administrative motion for an extension we will need to explain why we could not resolve the issue by stipulation. We would need to say that Plaintiffs told us that they did not oppose the request, but refused to stipulate. Would that fairly present your position to the court?

Thanks,
Alex

Alex,

It is correct that Plaintiffs don't oppose Facebook's request for an extension until January 4, 2022, and you have our permission to accurately reflect that position to the Court in any motion Facebook brings. However, Plaintiffs did not agree to stipulate to that extension.

Thanks,
Matt

Counsel:

We understand that you would not oppose a reasonable extension of the time for Facebook to file a statement or declaration in support of the motion to seal the Special Master's Order Regarding Production of ADI Related Documents. Please let us know if you will agree to the attached stipulation seeking an additional 7 business days, which would make the deadline January 4, 2022.

Thanks,
Alex
